

Stiftung
Endometriose
Forschung

Questionnaire

rehabilitation centres

Academic basis:

Interdisciplinary S2k Guideline for the Diagnosis and Treatment of Endometriosis
(AWMF 015 - 045)

Endometriosis Research Foundation and the European Endometriosis League
Recommendations

In collaboration with the Endometriosis Association Germany and the Endometriosis
Association Austria (EVA)

Compilation:

EuroEndoCert GmbH on behalf of the Endometriosis Research Foundation (SEF) and the European Endometriosis League

Name and address of endometriosis centre
Primary contact person
Website for patient information
Tel.-No. for appointments in the endometriosis clinic
Fax-No. for reporting results
E-Mail address for written enquiries
Further information
Date of application

Changes to this information must be reported immediately to EuroEndoCert GmbH (sek@euroendocert.de) so that the website can be updated

The following core partners form the endometriosis centre:

	Co-operation partner	Responsible organisation – if available	Assigned service
A			Gynaecology
B			Pain therapy*
C			Psychology*/ Psychotherapy
D			Physiotherapy
E			Dietary advice
F

* may be covered by gynaecologist with appropriate training

The following cooperation partners extend the endometriosis centre:

	Co-operation partner	Responsible organisation – if available	Assigned service
A			Obs/Gynae department for acute admissions
B			Surgery, urology etc*
C			Self-help organisation
D			Referring hospitals
E

* Department at co-operating hospital with acute admissions where adequate diagnosis and treatment is available and where quick return referral is expected

1. General information about the endometriosis centre

1.1 Network structure

	Requirement	Description
A	Description of respective co-operating partners (lead, place of availability and portfolio) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Objectives of rehabilitation • Organigram • Delineation of responsibilities • Schedule of endometriosis-specific rehabilitation • Compilation of rehabilitation groups
B	Description of individual persons, indication of gynaecologist in charge

1.2 Interdisciplinary cooperation

	Requirement	Description
A	Frequency of Interdisciplinary case conferences
B	Contact persons for the respective Co-operation partners in case of queries

1.3 Co-operation with practice-based doctors

	Requirement	Description
A	Planning of continuing therapy prior to discharge – follow-up schedule
B	Description of hand-over in-patient to out-patient care
C	Accessibility of the rehabilitation team for office-based and hospital gynaecologist
D	Description of feedback system for complications

E	Description of joint continuing medical education
F	Organisation or planning of a cooperative gynaecologic or interdisciplinary endometriosis network

1.4 Access to self-help

	Requirement	Description
A	Description of cooperation with national self-help organisation
B	Description of access to/information about self-help

1.5 Information events for patients

	Requirement	Description
A	Description of character and frequency of information events/conferences/written information

1.6 Participation in continuing medical education

	Requirement	Description
A	The head of the centre must have participated in a special qualification in the field of endometriosis or an equivalent event approved by SEF
B	One CME seminar on endometriosis every two years, certified by the respective medical board in charge

1.7 Scientific studies

	Requirement	Description
A	The conduct of own studies is encouraged
B	The participation in multicenter studies is encouraged

1.8 Endometriosis documentation

	Requirement	Description
A	Objectives of endometriosis documentation to be named. Descriptive annual statistics
B	Description of documentation of: basic data medical history diagnosis therapy course and follow-up
C	Compilation of an annual report on rehabilitation services and follow-up data. Number of patients treated, type of administered therapies. To be submitted by 31 st March of the following year

2. Specific information about the endometriosis centre

2.1 Information about pain therapy

	Requirement	Description
A	The name and qualification of the head of department and, if different, the primary contact person
B	Description of range and number of the therapeutic procedures used
C	Description of daily availability
D	Number of board certified pain specialists

* either an anaesthetist or a neurologist at the co-operating hospital with acute admissions or a co-operating pain clinic or a gynaecologist of the rehabilitation centre, if adequately qualified

2.2 Information on psychotherapy, psychology

	Requirement	Description
A	The name and qualification of the head of department
B	Description of range of therapeutic methods on offer and number of treatments
C	Description of daily availability

2.3 Information about physiotherapy

	Requirement	Description
A	The name and qualification of the head of department
B	Description of range of treatments and instructions on self-reliant activities Number of therapies administered per year
C	Description of daily availability

2.4 Information about dietary advice

	Requirement	Description
A	The name and qualification of the head of department
B	Description of number and range of consultations per year or per patient
C	Description of daily availability

2.5 Information about other cooperation partners

	Requirement	Description
A	The name and qualification of the head of department
B	Description of range of cooperative activity and the procedures used
C	Description of availability
D	Number and qualification of the persons who actively contribute

3. Special information about endometriosis rehabilitation

3.1 Information about endometriosis clinic

	Requirement	Description
A	Head has to be board certified gynaecologist
B	Number and qualification of doctors conducting the clinic
C	Schedule and organisation of endometriosis clinic
D	Total number of patients with endometriosis per year
E	Description of clinical documentation Clinical findings including pv/pr palpation, pain record, transvaginal ultrasound
F	Space for further explanations

3.2 Information about endometriosis rehabilitation therapy

	Requirement	Description
A	Head and qualification of head
B	Setup of rehabilitation department (hospital department, specialised institute, special project)
C	Number and qualification of gynaecologists performing or supervising rehabilitation
D	Number of hospital beds

E	Total number of rehabilitation patients per year Total number of endometriosis patients per year. Minimum 60 Minimum number of patients per group: 4 Thereof indication: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. 1a. Pain 1b. Infertility 1c. State of exhaustion 2. 2a. repeat surgeries 2b. major surgery 2c. loss of organ(s) 2d. other
F	Number and qualification of para-medical staff (clinic assistant, secretary, nurse etc.). One person has to be assigned specifically to the endometriosis section
G	Once yearly educational event for medical and nursing staff

Signature of the head of the endometriosis centre

Signatures of the cooperation partners:

Attachments
(numbered and marked accordingly)
